Appendix 1

- CALC's Ordination Vows (Draft)

Before almighty God, to whom you must give account, and in the presence of this congregation, I ask: Will you assume this office, believing that this congregation's call is God's call to the ministry of Word and Sacrament?

In the presence of this congregation will you commit yourself to this new trust and responsibility, and promise to discharge your duties in harmony with the constitutions of this church?

The church in which you are to be ordained subscribes to the Holy Scriptures as the divinely inspired, revealed, and inerrant Word of God, and joyfully submits to this as the only infallible authority in all matters of life and faith, accepts, teaches, and confesses the ancient Ecumenical Creeds, the Apostolic, the Nicene, and the Athanasian Creeds, and also acknowledges the Lutheran Confessions as true witnesses and faithful expositions of the Holy Scriptures. Will you therefore preach and teach in accordance with the Holy Scriptures and these Creeds and Confessions?

Will you be diligent in your study of the Holy Scriptures and in your use of the means of grace? Will you pray for God's people, nourish them with the Word and Holy Sacraments, and lead them by your own example in faithful service and holy living?

Will you give faithful witness in the world, that God's love may be known in all that you do?
